

GYPSY WOMEN AMONG WOUNDED IN CAMP BATTLE

Clubs and Knives Fiercely
Used During Wrangle Over an Alleged Burglary.

The reserves of the Fifth Provisional Infantry at Newark were rushed to a gypsy camp on Bloomfield avenue today, when a mounted policeman reported that a fierce battle was being fought there. The policeman had been appealed to by a member of the camp.

When the reserves arrived five of the gypsies—three men and two women—were suffering from severe cuts and bruises. Most of the wounds seemed to have been inflicted with clubs, but others looked like knife cuts. No knife was found, but several clubs that bore marks of the fray were picked up.

The wounded were Demetrio Kaslov, his son Frank, Viado Blimbo, his wife, Lizzie, and Annie George. All were taken to the City Hospital, where their wounds were dressed. Afterward Kaslov, his son and Blimbo were locked up and the women were sent back to the camp. Stephen Kaslov, another son of Demetrio, was also arrested.

Conflicting stories were told by the gypsies about the trouble. The Kaslovs said that some one broke into the trunk of Mary Kaslov, wife of Demetrio, and stole $50, and that this started the row. The Blimbos said the fight had nothing to do with the alleged robbery, but was over the division of $107 that the band received last night for jangle copper work.

The police found torn bills strewed

WRITER KILLED BY A FALL.

Thomas L. Sanford's Skull Fractured and He Died in Hospital.

Thomas L. Sanford, of No. 23 West One Hundred and Thirtieth street, a magazine writer, fell in front of No. 247 Fourth avenue today. His skull was fractured. He died several hours later in the New York Hospital.

He had been subject to fainting spells for more than a year, according to his brother, John H. Sanford, of No. 221 West Eleventh street. It is supposed that he fell during a period of faintness and struck his head on the sidewalk.

Four years ago the brother says, Thomas L. Sanford was stage manager for Mrs. Fisk. Since then he has been contributing to New York magazines and especially to periodicals dealing with theatrical matters.

ASK POST FOR HOLT.

WASHINGTON, March 18.—There are now three Republican representatives from Kentucky in addition to a Republican Senator. They have mustered up courage to ask a diplomatic name for W. H. Holt, who once was Supreme Court Justice in Kentucky and sat on the Supreme bench in Porto Rico several years. They hope the judge will be sent either to Switzerland, where Brutus J. Clay, of Kentucky, now holds forth, or to Spain.

TWO WOMEN ABLAZE FROM KITCHEN RANGE

Daughter Badly Burned Trying to Extinguish Flames That Enwrap Mother.

Mrs. Mary Boyer, forty-eight years old, was working about the stove in her kitchen at No. 26 Fourteenth avenue, Newark, when her dress caught fire and instantly she was enveloped in flames. Her screams were heard by her eighteen-year-old daughter, Catherine, who was in a room nearby. The girl ran to her mother's aid and in trying to beat out the flames was badly injured.

Mr. Boyer reached the house at this time and when he got to his apartment he found both women ablaze. He threw a rug about his wife and succeeded in extinguishing the flames, while the daughter was doing the same for herself. A hurry call was sent to the City Hospital and both women were hurried there.

Mrs. Boyer will probably die, but the daughter will recover.

BULLDOG ON DRUM SPOILED MEETING

Then the Canine's Owner Bruised the Face of Salvation Army Captain.

Michael Sullivan, of No. 218 East Eleventh street, as told 52 in Harlem Police Court today for trying to interfere with a performance by his bulldog into a Salvation Army meeting at Eighth-seventh street and Third avenue last night. The complaint was Capt. Elmer L. Brown, of the Salvation Army, who presented a discolored face and swollen lips as Exhibit A. The bulldog was not present.

"We had a blessed meeting," said the captain, speaking with some difficulty because of the prominence of his lips. "Until this man came along with his bulldog. We placed the drum on the ground for the audience to throw contributions on which we put his bulldog on top of the drum and made him

INDIGESTION AND DISTRESS VANISH FIVE MINUTES LATER.

Every family here ought to keep some Diapensin in the house, as any one of you may have an attack of indigestion or stomach trouble at any time, day or night.

This harmless preparation will digest anything you eat and overcome a sour stomach five minutes afterward. If your meals don't tempt you, or what little you do eat seems to fill you, or lays like a lump of lead in your stomach, or if you have heartburn, that is a sign of indigestion.

Ask your Pharmacist for a 50-cent case of Pape's Diapensin and take one triangle after supper to-night. There will be no sour risings, no belching of undigested food mixed with acid, no stomach gas or heartburn, fullness or heavy feeling in the stomach, Nausea, Debilitating Headaches, Dizziness or Intestinal griping. This will all go, and, besides, there will be no sour food left over in the stomach to poison your breath with nauseous odors.

Pape's Diapensin is a certain cure for all stomach misery, because it will take hold of your food and digest it just the same as if your stomach wasn't there.

Actual, prompt relief for all your stomach misery is at your Pharmacist, waiting for you.

These large 50-cent cases contain more than sufficient to cure a case of Dyspepsia or Indigestion.
